PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

"Home For The Holidays" conjures up fond memories for all of us. This scene is doubly significant for the Thoroughbreds since we are performing in a favorite old landmark in downtown Louisville for our favorite hometown patrons.

Since the mid 40's, our barbershop harmony has greeted the Christmas Season and many of you have been with us for every show. By singing for you tonight, we are truly "Home For The Holidays" and wish God's good will to all of you as our Holiday Season unfolds.

Our Director JIM MILLER

The old saying "good things come in small packages" does not apply when speaking of Jim Miller, Musical Director of the Thoroughbred Chorus. Our "good thing" comes in a very large package indeed. Big not only in stature but in talent, inspiration, dedication and, most of all, heart.

Jim, reluctantly, accepted leadership of the Thoroughbred musical program shortly after our first championship in 1962. He immediately began to prepare himself for the task at hand. That of becoming an "expert" in this barbershopping hobby we all share.

Over the years, Jim has become known, throughout the society, as one of, if not, the foremost authority in the art of chorus directing. His dedication to "improving the breed" is demonstrated many weekends each year as he travels throughout the country teaching other chapters the "Thoroughbred Ways".

Undoubtedly, one of his proudest achievements would be his involvement in leading the Thoroughbreds to five of our six International Championships. In addition, he is one of only seven men, in our barbershopping society of 38,000, who proudly hold six coveted gold medals.

One could only speculate as to where the Thoroughbreds would be were it not for Jim's leadership. Where the energy comes from . . . no one knows. One thing for sure . . . we're all extremely proud that he's on our team.

Over 40 - 4

Gordon L. Richens 1930 - 1983

Our show this evening is dedicated to the memory of Gordon Richens. "Gordo", as he was known to most of us, was an active member of the Thoroughbred chorus since 1962. Many of you will remember him as our MC for the annual show, package parade shows and announcer on many of the Thoroughbred records.

Named Thoroughbred of the Year in 1963 and having served as President of the chapter in 1969 Gordo was a real contributor to the chapter and his wit and creative humor are very much a part of our chapter's history, and success.

The society's AICC (Association of International Chorus Champion) now defunct, was his idea and he originated this group's annual meeting at the International Convention for a number of years. One little known fact is that Gordo encouraged and gave the International Championship, Blue Grass Student Union their name when the quartet was formed.

We'll miss him but cherish the memories of many years he brightened our society and our lives, and as we sing tonight we are very much aware of Gordo's contributions. To Bonnie, and the girls, Chrisy and Sandy and families we extend our sincere sympathy and our wish is that "Home for the Holidays", will serve as a real tribute to our friend, Gordon.

VOLVOS CAN'T STOP THE AGING PROCESS. BUT THEY CAN PROLONG IT.

As your car grows older, the last thing you want it to do is act its age. That's why you should consider a Volvo.

Volvos enjoy a long history of longevity. In fact, the average life expectancy of a 1984 Volvo is a remarkable 16 years.*

Volvos age gracefully because they're built so carefully. They feature superior unitized body construction. Advanced rust-proofing techniques. And tough, reliable internal components.

So come in now and buy a car that offers one of the most important advancements in the history of automotive technology: Advanced years.

*Based upon an actuarial analysis of 1981-1982 U.S. Registration Data conducted by Ken Warwick & Associates, Inc. Due to many factors including maintenance, driving conditions and habits, your Volvo may not last as long. Then again, it may last longer. Summary available at your Volvo dealer.

Mid States Four

Biographical Sketch

The Mid States Four were organized in 1943, while employed at a war plant. They are Past International Champions of the Society for the Preservation & Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, (Inc.). This quartet has become famous for its ability to combine smooth styling of currently popular songs with hilarious, madcap comedy and the more serious types of barbershop ballads. They are winners of the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scout Show and have traveled over 1,000,000 miles in the United States and Canada entertaining audiences. During the Korean conflict, they traveled over 24,000 miles doing a total of 33 shows for over 52,000 United Nations troops on the front lines, in recreation areas and in hospitals in Korea and Japan. Appearing on commercial shows with 'names' like Jack Bailey, Herb Shriner, Bob Hope, Jane Russell and the late Al Jolson, they more than received their share of applause.
